SETTING THE SCENE

The Bengals open their home schedule Sunday at Paycor Stadium against the Jacksonville Jaguars, looking to build on last week's 17-16 win at Cleveland. Cincinnati's defense carried the day, holding the Browns scoreless on their final six drives while forcing two interceptions. S Jordan Battle's third-quarter pick set up an Evan McPherson FG that stood as the game-winner, and CB DJ Turner II sealed the victory with his first career INT in the closing minutes. Battle posted a career-best 12 tackles, while DT B.J. Hill and DE Trey Hendrickson notched sacks to highlight a run-stopping effort that limited Cleveland to just 49 rushing yards. P Ryan Rehkow also played a key role, pinning the Browns at their own one-yard line with under 20 seconds to play.

Offensively, Cincinnati managed only 141 total yards but capitalized early with a pair of scoring drives. HB Chase Brown rushed for a five-yard TD on the opening series, and QB Joe Burrow later found TE Noah Fant for a short score. Burrow was held to 113 passing yards, yet emphasized the importance of finishing tight games, something that eluded the team last season. Both he and head coach Zac Taylor expect the offense to return to form after ranking among the league's top units in 2024. That challenge comes immediately against a Jacksonville defense that allowed just 10 points in its opener.

Sunday also marks the return of the team's "Open in Orange" tradition, with players and fans decked out in orange for the home opener atmosphere.

THE SERIES: VS JAGUARS

The Jaguars lead 13-12, but the Bengals have won three meetings in a row and seven of the last nine. The Bengals lead 8-5 overall in games played in Cincinnati.

The Bengals won the most recent meeting, 34-31 in overtime on Monday Night Football on Dec. 4, 2023 at Jacksonville. The Bengals and Jaguars were rivals in the AFC Central Division from 1995 through 2001, playing twice each season. This week's game is their 12th meeting since the 2002 realignment that put Cincinnati in the AFC North and Jacksonville in the AFC South. The Bengals hold a 7-4 series edge since the realignment.

ZAC TAYLOR

HEAD COACH - 7TH SEASON

Zac Taylor became the 10th head coach in Bengals history on Feb. 4, 2019, and enters his seventh season in 2025. He owns a 46-52-1 regular-season record and a 5-2 postseason mark. Under his leadership, the Bengals have posted four straight winning seasons and built one of the NFL's top offenses.

In 2024, Taylor led Cincinnati to a 9-8 finish, ending the year with five consecutive wins. The Bengals led the NFL in passing yards per game and ranked top 10 in scoring and total offense.

Joe Burrow set franchise records in completions, yards and touchdowns, earning Pro Bowl and Comeback Player of the Year honors. Ja'Marr Chase won the rare receiving "Triple Crown," while Chase Brown broke out as a versatile threat.

Despite injuries in 2023, Taylor guided the Bengals to another 9-8 season. A midseason surge with a healthy Burrow showed promise. When Burrow went down with injury, Taylor helped backup Jake Browning step in and finish 4-3. Browning ranked second leaguewide in passing yards and completion percentage during that stretch.

Chase notched his first 100-catch season, while Joe Mixon surpassed 1,200 scrimmage yards for the third year in a row.

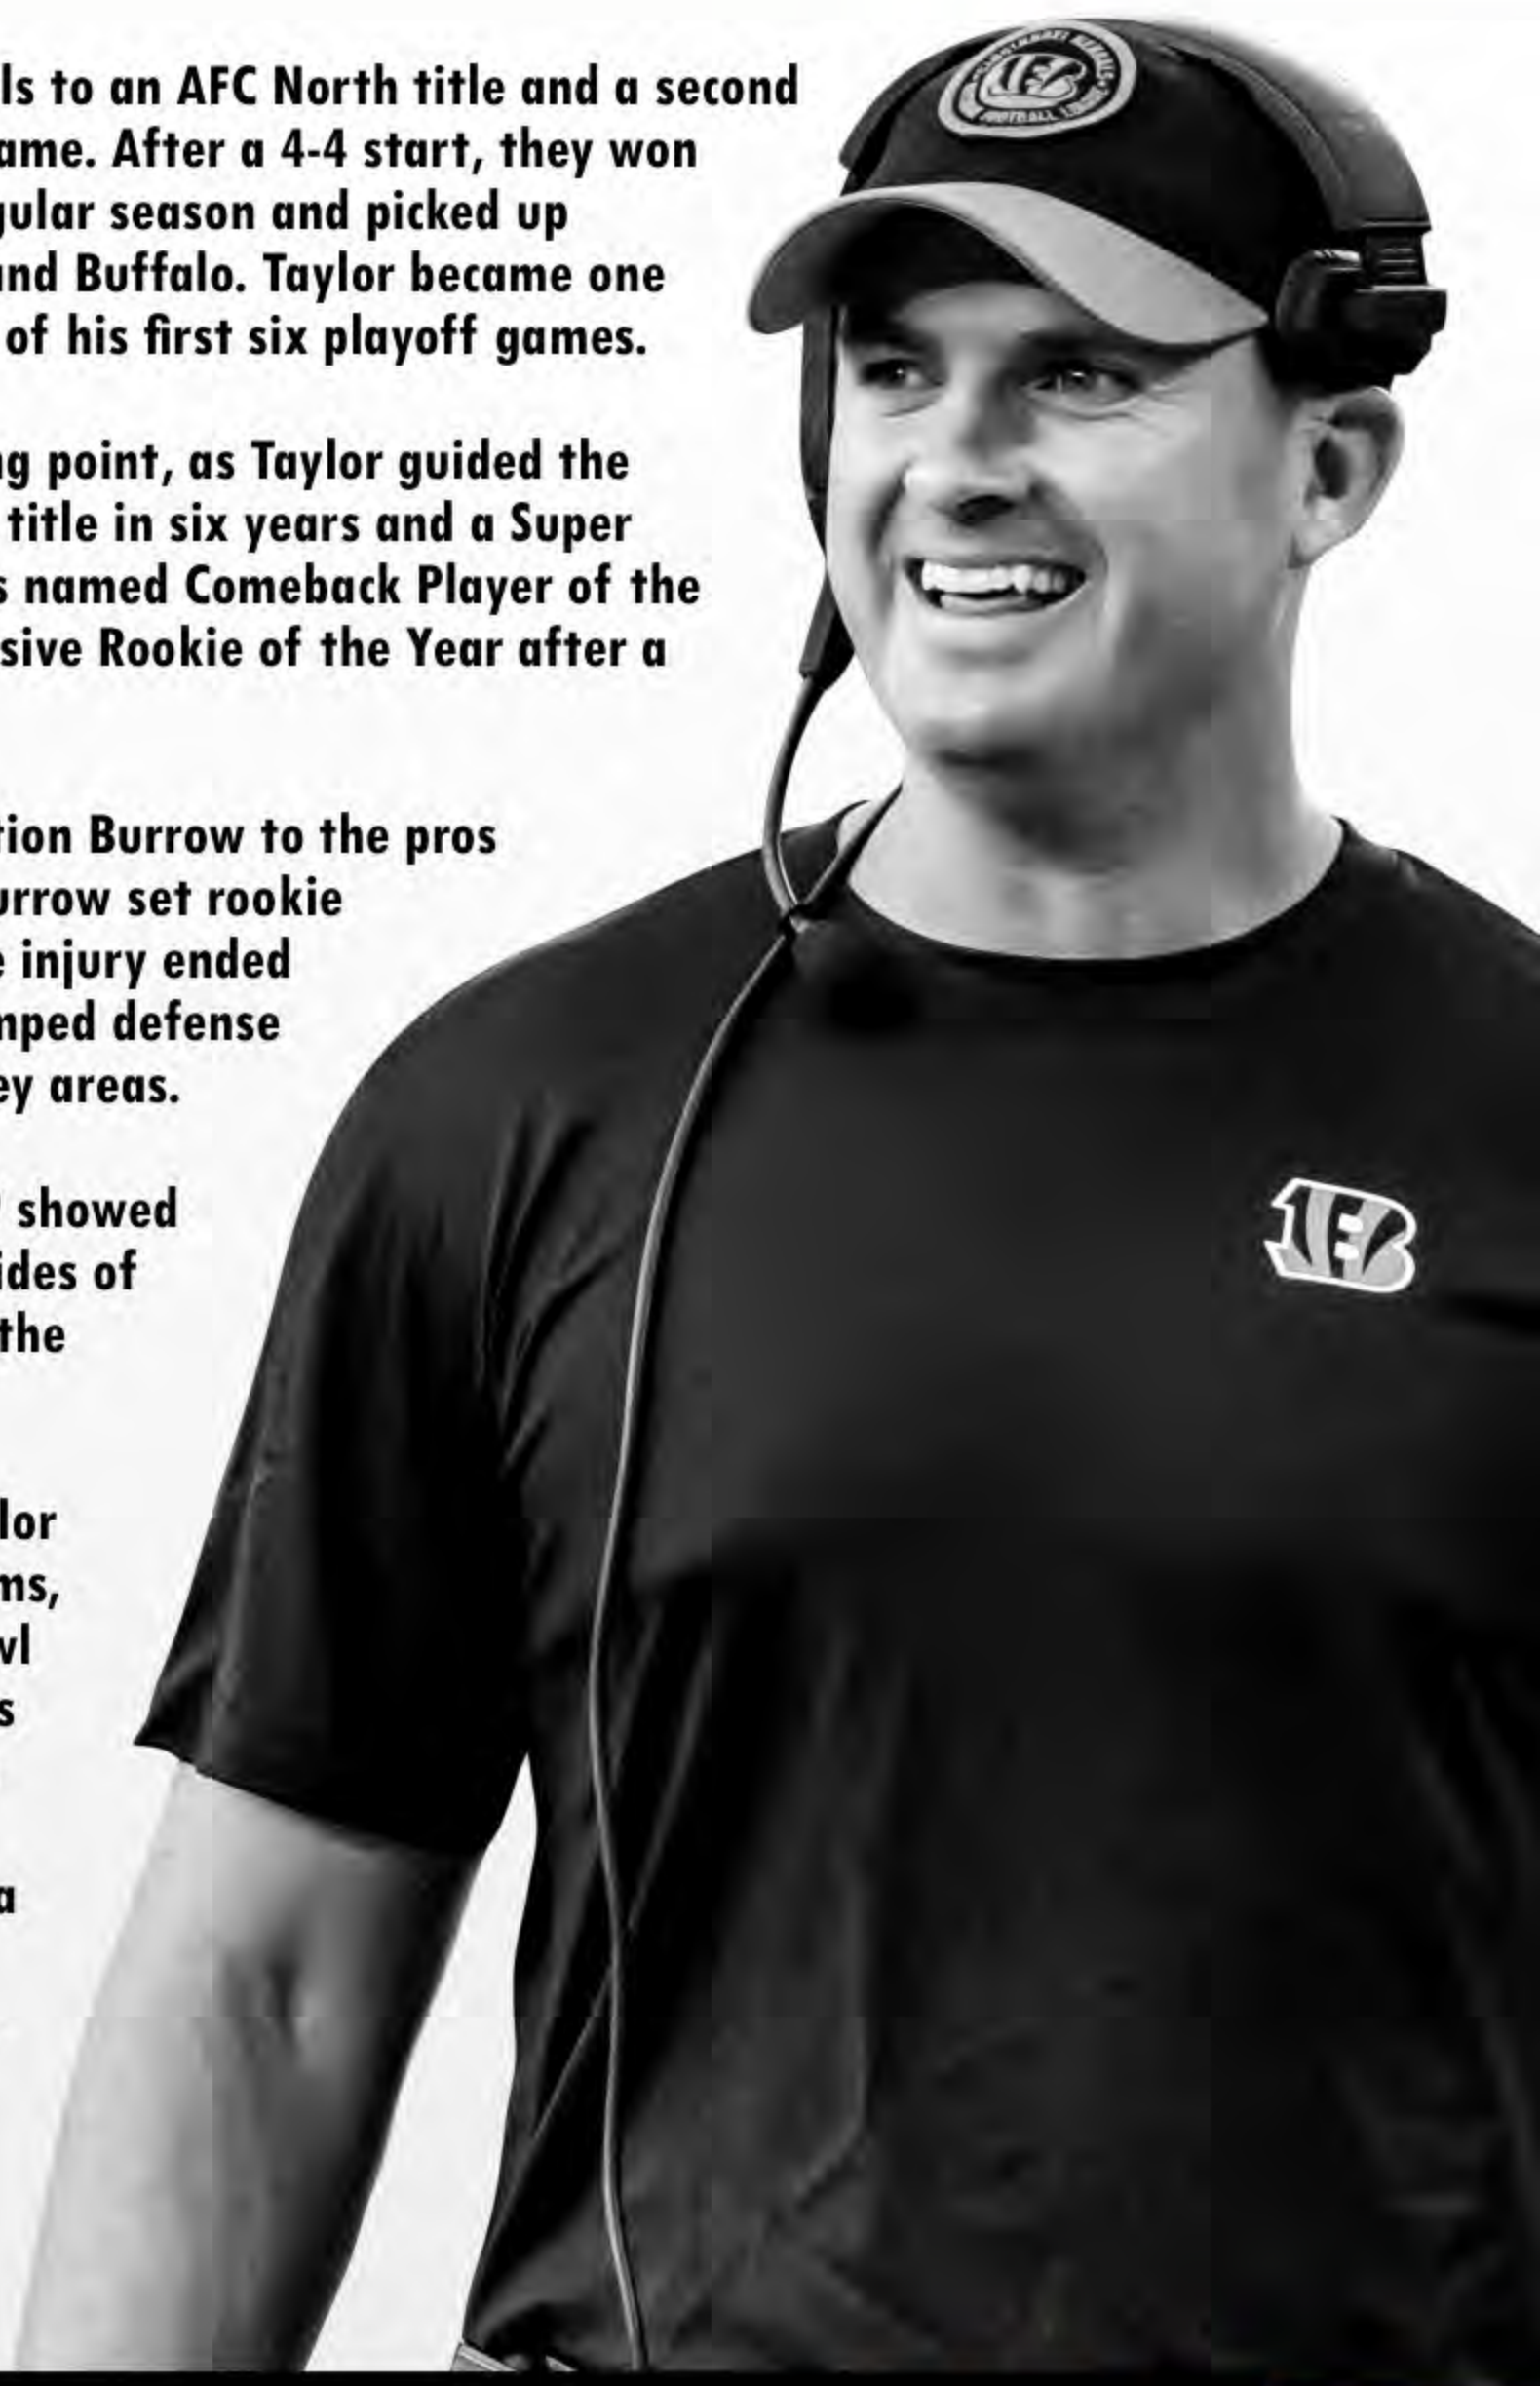

In 2022, Taylor led the Bengals to an AFC North title and a second straight AFC Championship Game. After a 4-4 start, they won eight straight to close the regular season and picked up playoff wins over Baltimore and Buffalo. Taylor became one of just 13 coaches to win five of his first six playoff games.

The 2021 season was a turning point, as Taylor guided the Bengals to their first division title in six years and a Super Bowl appearance. Burrow was named Comeback Player of the Year, and Chase earned Offensive Rookie of the Year after a record-setting debut.

In 2020, Taylor helped transition Burrow to the pros amid COVID-19 challenges. Burrow set rookie passing records before a knee injury ended his season, and Taylor's revamped defense quietly improved in several key areas.

Taylor's debut season in 2019 showed second-half growth on both sides of the ball, setting the tone for the team's future rise.

Before joining Cincinnati, Taylor coached QBs with the L.A. Rams, helping them reach Super Bowl LIII. His resume includes stops at UC, Miami (NFL) and Texas A&M. As a player, he was a record-setting QB at Nebraska and was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year. He and his wife Sarah have four children.

MORE THAN A STADIUM

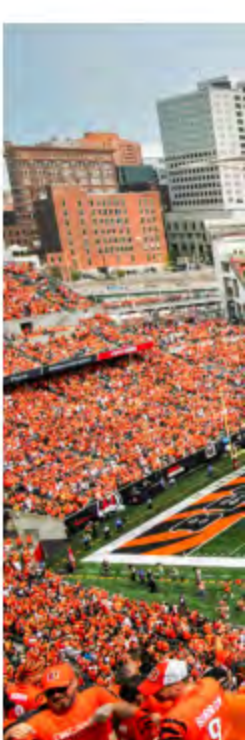

CINCINNATI IS OUR HOME

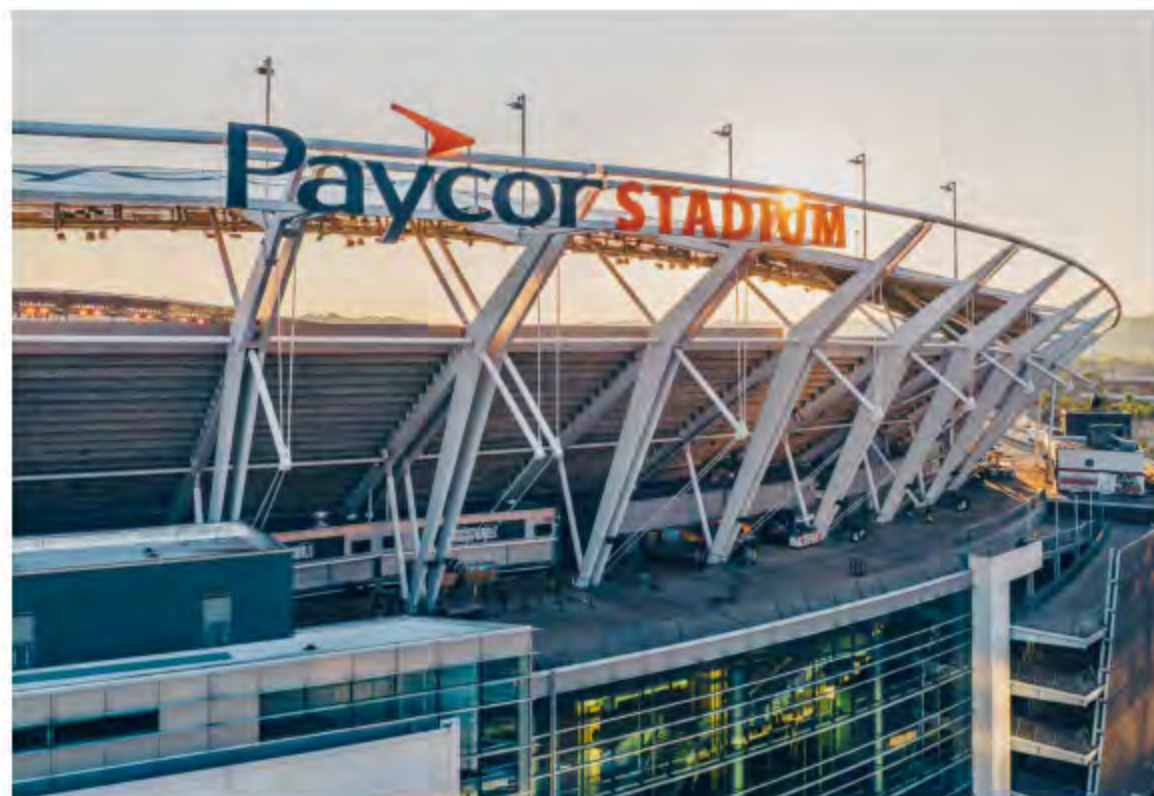

Paycor Stadium isn't just a place to watch football, it's the heart of Cincinnati. Since opening as Paul Brown Stadium in 2000, it has been a gathering place for unforgettable moments. Today, with thoughtful renovations underway, the stadium continues to provide an electrifying gameday experience for fans and players alike.

The Bengals drive over $1 billion in annual economic impact to the region. Through training camps, charity initiatives and unforgettable gameday experiences, the stadium remains a cornerstone of Cincinnati's downtown life.

"We love this city, and we love our fans. We are committed to investing in our team, our stadium and our community."

CAROLINE & ELIZABETH BLACKBURN

“The new lease keeps Paycor Stadium on par with other communities around the country and maintains an excellent venue. Paycor Stadium will remain a focal point for Cincinnati’s riverfront. Importantly, this solidifies the future of the Bengals in Cincinnati, our beloved home, for many years to come,” Katie Blackburn said.

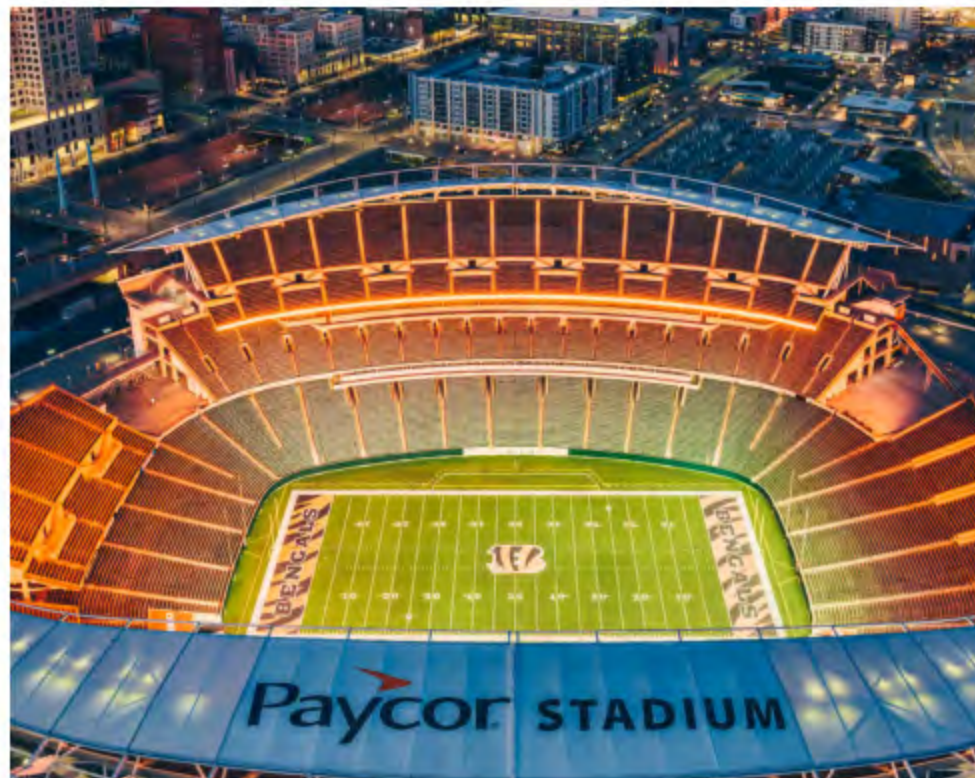

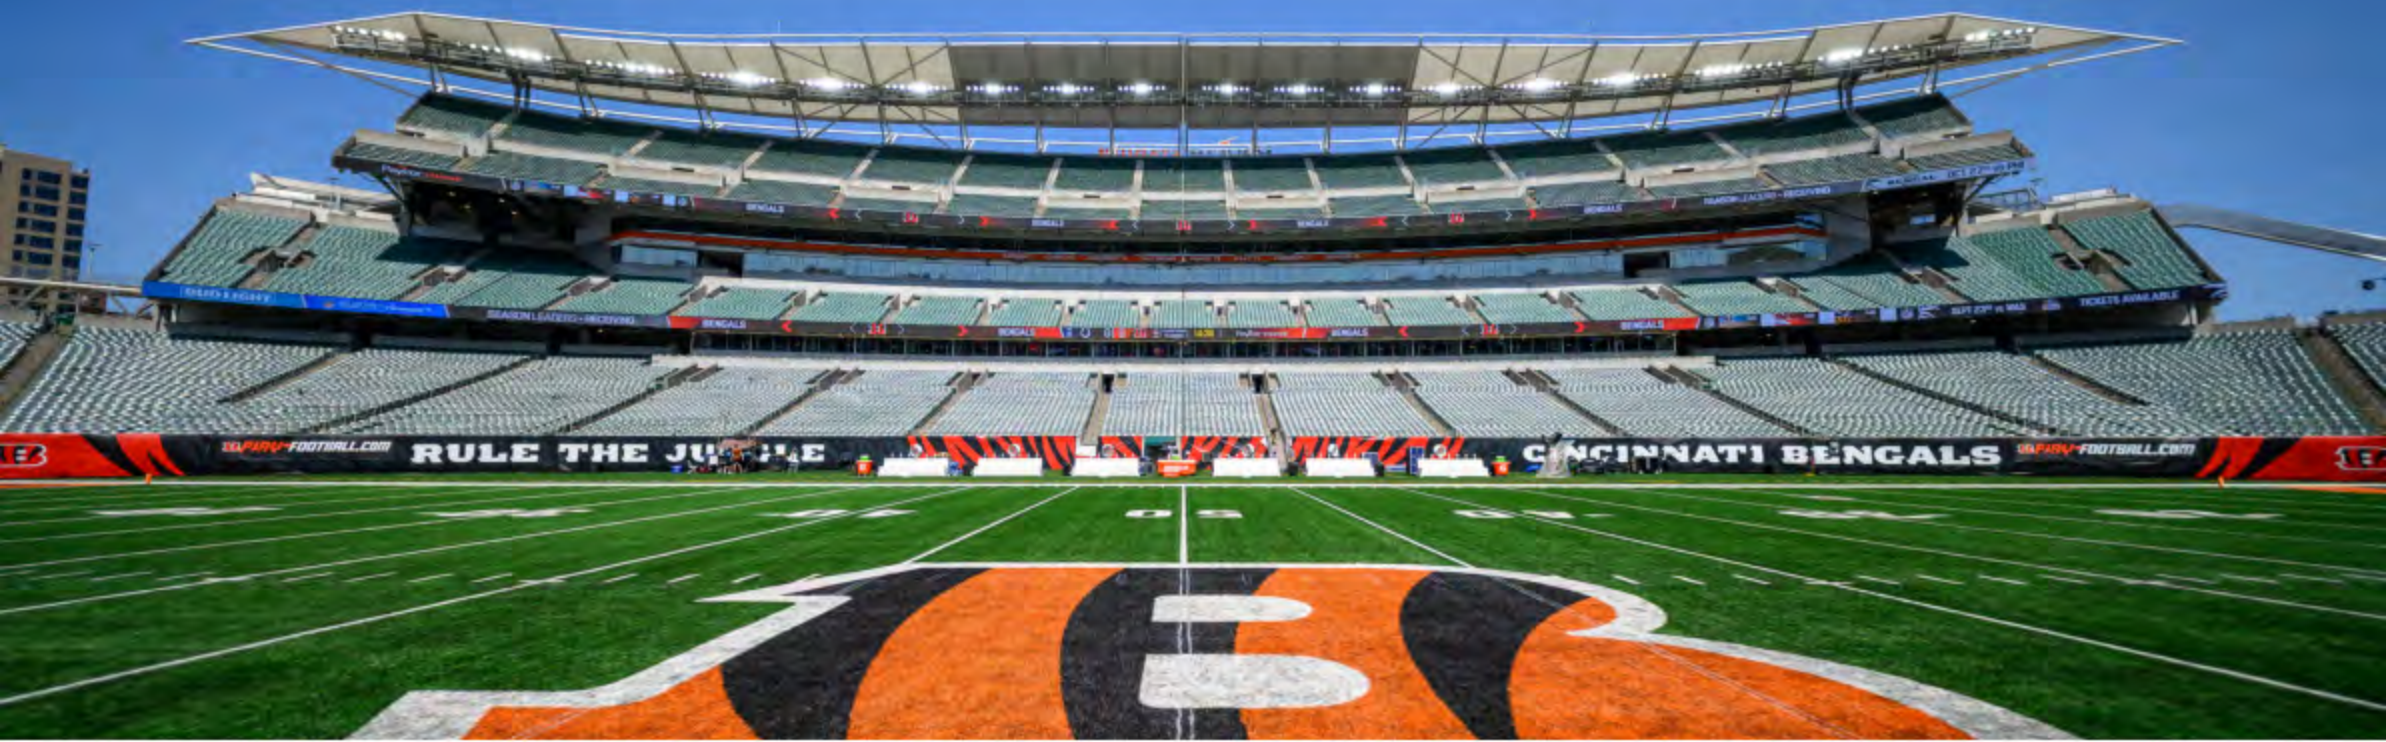

Paycor Stadium is more than a building, it’s where history is made, fans unite and the future of Bengals football comes alive. With top-tier renovations, a downtown location and generations of loyal fans, the stadium stands as a symbol of pride, community and Who Dey spirit for years to come.

“We want to compete at the highest level in the NFL here in Cincinnati. It was important to have an agreement that works for us, works for our fans and works for the community.”

GAMEDAY TRADITIONS

RULER OF THE JUNGLE & ROCK N RULE

On Bengals gameday, two unforgettable moments light up Paycor Stadium. Just before kickoff, the Ruler of the Jungle takes the spotlight on the Ruler Stage. A Bengals legend, celebrity or hometown hero leads the entire stadium in a thunderous “WHO DEY!” chant, sending a jolt of energy through Who Dey Nation and signaling that football is officially underway in Cincinnati.

As the game reaches its final stretch, Rock N Rule takes over. Heading into the fourth quarter or during the first defensive timeout, a live guitarist shreds an electrifying rendition of “Welcome to the Jungle.” The roar of the guitars mixes with the roar of the fans, rallying the crowd and fueling the Bengals defense for the closing push.

BENGALS CAPTAIN AND WHO BAE

Jess and Jeremy Conley are lifelong Bengals fans and 15-year STREAK Season Ticket Members who bonded over a “Who Dey” on their first date. They bought their first season tickets together and joined the Bengal Bomb Squad tailgate in Lot 1. In 2017, a Microsoft commercial featuring the tailgate inspired Jeremy to embrace his game day alter ego, Bengals Captain, complete with a Captain Obvious look. He later dubbed Jess “Who Bae” as a nod to their favorite chant.

The Conleys have supported Cincinnati causes since 2012, most recently backing Freestore Foodbank, Pelotonia. They also contribute to Bengals player charities like the Cincy Hat Project, which benefits adults with developmental disabilities.

Jess also created and hosts Tigress Talk, the first and only Bengals YouTube show entirely run by women. She uses the platform to support H.E.R. Cincinnati and Women Helping Women, organizations serving women and families across the city.

Each say they married their best friend and the biggest Bengals fan they know.

PAUL BROWN

INNOVATOR. COACH. FOUNDER.

Paul Brown is one of the most iconic figures in NFL history, renowned for his groundbreaking coaching methods and lasting influence on the game. Founder of the Cincinnati Bengals in 1967 and winner of a record seven championships, his strategic brilliance reshaped football and left an enduring mark on generations of players, coaches and fans.

Brown was a pioneer in every sense. He was the first coach to use classroom-style play study, relay plays from the sideline, station assistants in the press box, evaluate players through film, hire a full-time staff and require players to stay together in a hotel before games.

His innovations included the face mask, the passing pocket, the draw play, the taxi squad and the timed 40-yard dash, staples of the game to this day. Over his career, he won 213 games, broke the color barrier in pro football by signing Bill Willis and Marion Motley in 1946 and became the winningest head coach in Cleveland Browns history. In 1976, he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

The promise inside Hazel is greater than the poverty around her.

Hazel doesn't know what she wants to be when she grows up, and that's just fine. At age 11, her job is to play, grow and learn. But for kids like her in the world's poorest places, poverty gets in the way.

ChildFund works in 24 countries to make sure children grow up healthy, educated, self-sufficient and safe, wherever they were born.

Thanks to generous supporters, our programs help children fulfill their potential. That's been our promise to them for 80-plus years.

ANTHONY MUÑOZ

CLASS OF 1998

ABOUT

POSITION: Offensive Tackle

HEIGHT: 6-6 | WEIGHT: 278

NFL CAREER: 1980-1992, Cincinnati Bengals

SEASONS: 13 | GAMES: 185

COLLEGE: University of Southern California

DRAFTED: 1st Round (3rd Overall), 1980

"Anthony's induction was very gratifying to our organization and to all of our fans ... It was particularly so because the selectors recognized Anthony as a truly special player and person who deserved election on his first try. During his playing days, no one in the NFL was better. It's justifiable to consider him as the best offensive lineman ever. He has conducted his personal and family life in a way that is a great credit to the Bengals and the NFL."

- Bengals President Mike Brown

The Bengals' Anthony Munoz, who defined the art of playing offensive tackle in the National Football League, was inducted to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Aug. 1, 1998. It was the first year of Hall eligibility for Munoz, whose final NFL season was 1992 with the Bengals. There currently are 382 Hall of Famers, and Munoz is one of only 90 players selected in their first year of eligibility.

In six of his 13 Bengals seasons, Munoz earned at least one major award as NFL Offensive Lineman of the Year. One award citation, issued by NFL Alumni, reads: "The NFL has three levels of offensive linemen. The bottom rung is for players aspiring to make the Pro Bowl. The next step is for those who have earned all-star status. Then there's Anthony Munoz. He's alone at the top, a sure Hall of Famer."

Though there are other Hall of Fame members with some Hispanic ancestry, Munoz is considered the first player of primarily Hispanic background to enter the Hall. Munoz was born in Ontario, California.

KEN RILEY

CLASS OF 2023

ABOUT

POSITION: Cornerback

HEIGHT: 5-11 | Weight: 181

NFL CAREER: 1969-1983, Cincinnati Bengals

SEASONS: 15 | GAMES: 207

COLLEGE: Florida A&M

DRAFTED: 6th Round (135th Overall), 1969

"Ken Riley was a wonderful person ... everyone at all levels with the team respected him. Ken looked out for others. He was known as someone who would help. Had he lived Ken would have delighted in being selected for the Hall of Fame. Now the extended Bengals family will have to do that for him. We miss him, and we celebrate him."

- Bengals President Mike Brown

Legendary Bengals CB Ken Riley, affectionately known by nicknames such as "The Rattler," "Mr. Bengal" and "Mr. Consistency," was officially announced as a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2023 at the NFL Honors ceremony on Feb. 9, 2023.

Riley, who passed away in 2020 at the age of 72, was one of three senior nominees selected to the class, joining Cowboys LB Chuck Howley and Jets defensive lineman Joe Klecko. He played in 207 games over 15 seasons (1969-83) for Cincinnati and had a team-record 65 career INTs, which also ranks tied for the fifth most in NFL history. Ken Riley II represented his father at the NFL Honors when he was introduced by Riley's former Bengals teammate and Pro Football Hall of Famer, Anthony Munoz. Riley and the rest of the Class of 2023 were enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Saturday, Aug. 5, 2023, at Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium in Canton, Ohio.

RING OF HONOR

2025 INDUCTEES

LAPHAM 62

Dave Lapham, entering his 50th season with the Bengals in 2025, is one of the team's most beloved figures. As a player, he was one of the most versatile offensive linemen in franchise history, starting at all five positions during his 140-game career and helping the 1981 team reach Super Bowl XVI. Since 1986, Lapham has been the Bengals' radio analyst, known for his football insight, quick wit and enthusiasm. Bengals President Mike Brown praised his continuity, intelligence and connection with fans, while Lapham called his Ring of Honor induction the highest honor of his life and expressed gratitude to the organization and supporters.

PARRISH 20

Lemar Parrish, known as "Leapin' Lemar," is one of the most exciting players in Bengals history and the franchise's highest scoring defensive player with touchdowns on interceptions, punts, fumbles and a kickoff. He earned six Pro Bowl selections and remains one of the team's most dynamic playmakers. Parrish set records for punt return average and long returns, leaving a lasting mark on the team's history. He said being selected to the Ring of Honor is the most prestigious award of his life and expressed gratitude to the team and fans.
